

SKIPPY GREENE BIO

Cut from the cloth of “classic” comedy, Skippy Greene combines old-school style with new-school attitude. Whether telling stories about his sexual escapades with celebrities (like Betty White & Gary Coleman) or stories about his days in Vegas, one thing is sure...someone will be offended. And that’s just fine with Skippy.

Skippy Greene has mixed crude (yet smart) jokes with obscure references like 1980’s cartoons. His show takes you on a ride...sometimes it’s a dark and perverted ride, but a funny ride as well. When asked “Who is Skippy Greene?” Skippy replied: “I’m a fucking comedian, and a really good one too. Actually, if I can be so bold, I’m funnier than shit...and when I say “funnier than shit”, I really mean “funnier than Honey Boo Boo’s mother”, who is literal shit. GOBOTS!”

Skippy has had the pleasure of performing for royalty, he’s jammed with Jimi Hendrix, gotten stoned with Bill Clinton & had Celine Dion open up for him, after which he said: “She was a great opener...and when we were done she performed at my show. VOLTRON!”

Skippy was voted “Critics Pick” at the Famecast.com Comedy Competition, invited to perform at The Hollywood Comedy Festival, The San Luis Obispo Comedy Festival and was selected as a finalist for the 2012 Andy Kaufman Awards in New York City. Skippy’s performed with KISS & Alien Ant Farm and he’s been seen on many television shows including Latino 101 & Last Comic Standing 7, but’s he probably best known for his short-lived sitcom from 1983. It holds the record for the shortest run of any television series having been cancelled less than a minute into the first episode. When possible, Skippy shows the clip at his live shows.

Please know that Skippy is not for everyone; if you are easily offended by profanity or taboo subjects, Skippy’s not for you. But for those of you with an open mind & a great sense of humor, get ready for a show to remember.
